

Training Bulletin – Courses running in November and December 2015

1. Neglect

This whole day course is for professionals from all agencies who work with children, young people and their parents and carers. It focuses on child neglect and how the multi-agency network should respond to it.

- 11th November 2015

2. Preventing Radicalisation and Violent Extremism

The session will introduce CONTEST, the government's counter-terrorism strategy, with particular focus on Prevent which helps to stop people becoming terrorists or supporting terrorism. The training will also provide local context regarding risks and threats in Sussex and highlight sources of support, such as the Channel programme.

- 16th November 2015 – AM or PM
- 24th November 2015 - AM

3. Child Sexual Exploitation Awareness

This half day course is for all those working with young people and their carer's. It looks in depth at what CSE is, how it can be recognised and what effect it has on children or young people and the service you provide.

- 19th November 2015

- 17th December 2015

4. MASH and CSE Workshops

Agencies across West Sussex are working together to create a new front door for safeguarding concerns about children and young people. Alongside this agencies have developed the West Sussex response to tackling CSE. These changes will have an impact on safeguarding activity across all educational settings and agencies, and so it is vital that all managers and practitioners involved in safeguarding children know about them.

- The workshop invitation and booking form for all dates can be found here.

5. Serious Case Review Briefing

This briefing is aimed at disseminating the recommendations and learning from serious case reviews, both local and national. The aim of this briefing is to help you understand the outcomes of relevant serious case reviews and provide an opportunity to consider the implications for your work. We encourage staff to attend the briefings with a view to communicating the learning back to their teams. There will be further briefings in the new year

- 2nd December 2015

6. Child Protection Conference and Core Groups

This is a full day course aimed at helping professionals from partner agencies become familiar with CP Conference and Core Group meetings. The aim of this course is to help you understand the workings of safeguarding meetings, including the expectations upon you in terms of attendance and contribution.

- 26th November 2015

7. Understanding Thresholds

This workshop will help you to develop our common understanding of how we assess and determine levels of need and intervention for children and their families in West Sussex.

- 14th December 2015

8. Working Together to Safeguard Children

This one day course is for members of the workforce who work predominantly with children, young people and/or their parents/carers and who could potentially contribute to assessing, planning, intervening and reviewing the needs of a child and the parenting capacity where there are safeguarding concerns
